July 2, 1992

Dear Ms. Tamineh Roshanian:

The Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Uzbekistan ("the Ministry"), having regard for the capabilities of East-West Innovations, Inc. ("EWI") and after considering your suggestions, agrees to cooperate with EWI in the structuring of the legal framework for a free market economy for the Republic of Uzbekistan designed to effect a smooth transition of the Republic of Uzbekistan into the world economy.

EWI would participate in this work as an adviser and assistant to the Ministry. In particular, EWI would advise and assist the Ministry in the drafting of a commercial code for the Republic of Uzbekistan covering privatization, taxation, mineral and natural resource laws and environmental protection laws and other relevant commercial laws.

In order to implement this project successfully, the Ministry and EWI will work together to establish specific objectives, priorities and schedule ("the Program"). The Ministry consents that EWI will have the exclusive right to choose foreign consultants and legal advisers to implement the Program. In particular, the Ministry agrees that the law firm, Mayer, Brown & Platt, recommended by EWI, will participate in the Program as legal adviser.

The Ministry and EWI, together with other parties jointly selected by them, will form a Steering Committee to administer the Program. The Steering Committee will consist of representatives of each of the participating parties. Services rendered by foreign advisers to the Program will be paid by EWI or as directed by the Steering Committee out of funds provided for this purpose by international agencies, agencies of the U.S. government and by funds that may be provided for this purpose by foreign companies conducting business in Uzbekistan as well as Uzbek companies.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Ministry of Justice shall not be responsible for the expenses of EWI unless otherwise expressly agreed.

In conclusion, the Ministry would like to express its appreciation for your willingness to participate in this work. The Ministry looks forward to cooperating with you in identifying other projects for future cooperation. It is a great pleasure for us to work with you. We are looking forward to the successful completion of this project.

Sincerely yours,

Muhamed-Babur Malikov
Minister of Justice
Republic of Uzbekistan
